LOCAL NEWS.

DEPLORABLE ACCIDENT. - A most melancholy and deplorable accident occurred about seven o'clock this morning, a short distance below this city, the particulars of which, as narrated by eye witnesses, are as follows: Mr. Frank A. Posey, of Prince George's county, Maryland, a young gentleman well and favorably known here, accompanied by his young wife, his half brother, a little boy between six and seven years of age, named Ben Edelin, son of Mrs. Johanna Edelin of the same county, and a colored man, whose name is not known, came out to board the steamer Fairy on her way up from Farmington, for the purpose of Mr. Posey's mother, to whom he was going to pay a visit, resides. They reached the Fairy at the mouth of Piscataway Creek, and recognizing some of her passengers, bid them good morning, but before the salutation was returned, their boat, either by striking the steamer, which had stopped for them, or because those in it stood up and lost their balance, filled, and was capsized, leaving its occupants floundering in the water. Mr. Posey swam to his wife, and having caught her by the waste, succeeded in holding her head above the water until the boat could be righted by the colored man, when, by the latter's assistance, she was placed therein. But this had hardly been accomplished when, from some unaccountable reason, the colored man in trying to get into the boat, caused it to upset again, and the sole occupant, whom a loving husband had supposed saved, sank to rise no more. In the mean time the little boy had been lost sight of and had found a watery grave. The captain and all on board the steamer made every effort to render assistance, oars, life preservers and everything at Frank Phillips, one of the hands, jumped over | day night next at eight o'clock. and swam to the scene of the disaster, but all to no purpose, as far as the lady and boy were overcome by the sad event. He was brought up the river to Fort Foote, where his sisters had already come down to the landing to receive him and those who had so lately been separated from him never again to meet until that day when the sea shall give up its dead. The colored man was also saved and no blame can be attached to him as he did all in his power to render aid and the unfortunate part he acted on the said occasion so effected him as to secure him the sympathy rather than blame of the passengers on board the boat .-Mr. Posey had been married but about six weeks, his wife being a Miss Jameson, of Charles County. The captain of the Fairy did not come on up to this city, but leaving his beat, took some men at Fort Foote and went

Four horses belonging to Adams express company were then hitched to the same car, and driven by Townsend Crump, col., one of the express company's drivers, made a round trip over the length of the entire route. The track had not been cleaned off, and the wheels of the car, in consequence, did not keep in the groves, but its occupants and the many who witnessed the trip were delighted with this additional evidence of Alexandria's increasing prosperity. On Wednesday next, it is expected, and not ou Monday, as heretofore announced, the ears will commence running regularly.
